Personality description

Hmm, I'm calm, more introvertic person, I don't like to be in the centre of attention. I appreciate quality, not quantity. I'm meticulous and accurate, when I do something. I don't like to rush, to be sure my decisions are right (sometimes my late voting! xD - btw. I don't understand how people can vote 30 minutes after songs are revealed, it's even impossible to listen them all, even if you know some of them, come on, there is always about a week for that!).

"Why should you be part of the EM FC Committee?"

Why I decided to send my application? Because many times before I saw wrong songs were accepted by FC and I noticed that only looking on songs list. I'm in EM quite long (since EM10, but I was looking from behind 2-3 editions before I joined), so I recognize the songs, if they already participated or not. It's unacceptable to overlook that! I don't participate in other contests, but I know many European artists (especially from Eastern Europe, because I speak Russian). Choosing my own entry I always check lyrics/music authors to be sure it's not a cover. In that way I discovered quite many Polish famous songs are not original ones! And not like many new players I can use google to check these things ;) I know, it wasn't nice :) but it's reality, unfortunately.

Optional question: "How can you improve the Eurovision Memories Song Contest?"

One more thing is I want to improve EM, I don't want to see many DSQ, it brings down contest's reputation. We have to do our best and be sure we did everything to give people a chance to participate and have fun. When all the songs are OK, we can be calm too. Then we avoid stress and making people unfairly disappointed (like poor Berna).

I read that adding artist's pic should be mandatory with sending entry, It's a good idea. Also it could be adding authors names to make FC job easier to check. The voting should start at least 24h after publishing the songs imo. I hope we will back to video-envelopes during shows, maybe also to presentaion show, like it was once? I remember it was great!
