Personality description

I'm energy. It's that simple, and for the people that surrounds me, it can even border on annoying. They (and I used to, as well) wonder how I'm able to dance and sing every day despite all problems, despite the bad weather... Or despite the fact it's not a good week. I figured out I've developed a quite effective resilience..... I think one must always smile and be grateful for the new day instead of complaining about everything that went wrong before. This doesn't mean I don't cry or I don't feel sad... Because I do sometimes; every human feeling is important to be 'felt' and embraced. Equilibrium is not achieved if you live in the extreme of euphoria or in the extreme of depression.

I'm music. Even though the Universe didn't give me the gift of vocal skills, I'm always singing and humming and dancing everywhere. I can relate everything and everybody to a specific song (even when studying, and that's when funny things come up); and all the best moments in my life have had a soundtrack. Out of all artistic developments of mankind I find music the most pure and amazing. I reach nirvana with folk music, btw!

I'm passion. When I love something I can spend hours and hours working in the same thing without getting bored. I'm passionately obsessed with what I love. Maybe a good thing, maybe not. Because that makes me organize my "schedule" by what-I-regard-as-priorities instead of really making a time-consistent schedule like normal people.

I tried being normal, but that's too mainstream (just kidding, hehe!).

"Why should you be part of the EM FC Committee?"

I'm passionately obsessed with the "realism" of online contests. Lady Gaga representing Monaco? MY GOD. That's exactly why I like the EM rules, and why I've stayed here for so long. But I've lately identified some things that the current FC let go by, and that's not a good thing:

1. It violates our "fair play" philosophy.
2. It makes players get disqualified.... Which is a very bad and sad thing for them.

So I really think I can be the ultimate piece of the FC that can tune up its efficiency and accuracy. Especially on the nationality checks and the "is it a hit?" rule. I believe it's a perfect job for me and in some way, a good method to give back EM what it has given me in joy and new music.

Optional question: "How can you improve the Eurovision Memories Song Contest?"

I don't think I can actively improve the Eurovision Memories Song Contest -currently-, but if some ideas come up I'll be eager to share them. What I can assure you, though, is that I'll do more than my best to not let the EM Contest be ruined. I want to celebrate the hundredth edition and many more!
