

X-Mas Edition Vienna 2019

Rules of the competition

As of 8/12/2019

I. Call for submissions

The Submission period for the X-Mas Special Edition 2019 will be officially opened on 8/12/2019 18:30 PM CET. The submission period will close on 18/12/2019 at exactly 22:00 PM CET. Submissions that will be sent after the deadline ends will be considered invalid.

II. Participants

Valid Applications can be received only from current active Eurovision Memories Song Contest players. Special cases can be discussed only within the Eurovision Memories Fairness Committee.

III. Country Selection

It is not mandatory to participate with the country you usually take part at EM. If an agreement is reached with the owner of the country, switches can be made but rule no. II must be complied.

IV. The participant

- a) Will vote and comply with the current rules. Voting after the established deadline will be considered invalid and disqualification will be applied.
- b) Will comply with deadline that will be previously established by the organizer.
- c) Will submit votes on time with no further delays, else disqualification or the usual EM FEE penalty will be applied.

V. The Organizer

- a) Will update the website and publish the results in the communicated deadlines.
- b) Will organize a transparent selection with no shady stuff.
- c) Will cooperate with the Eurovision Memories Fairness Committee for the full organization of the contest.

VI. The DEADLINES

Submission period was established to be organized between December 8th and December 18th. The voting deadline will be previously established by the organizer and published on the X-Mas Edition 2019 page accordingly.

The organizer reserves the right to establish a max number of participants, deny applications that are not valid according to the EM standards and organize the contest.

The current Regulation was approved and will be valid as of 8/12/2019.
