

THE EM ORGANIZATION POSITIONS 2015

Webmaster

The Webmaster or the creator of the contest is responsible for the entire organization of the contest. He will form the organization teams for every edition and will help the contest evolve in the best way possible!

Executive Supervisor

Our own "Jon Ola Sand" that will supervise the voting, shows and will maintain a clear fairness of the organization methods. The executive supervisor is responsible for proposing the calendar of the forthcoming edition and most of all, he is responsible for keeping up to those dates. He needs to present the FC the received submissions and help with the verification.

Producers

The helpers of the Executive Supervisor (the ES can also be the producer). The producers will report to the Executive Supervisor possible errors and can also propose new ideas for organizing the entire event. The producers are responsible for gathering votes and adding everything up until the final detail. The producers will also make voting reminders on the EM group.

Organizers

The organizers will help create webpages, create playlists, put the songs online, update history pages, run songs on the radio, prepare the shows, help within the FC by verifying submissions and keeping in touch with all the participants, write articles on the news page etc.

THE EM ORGANIZATION POSITIONS 2015

The EM winner:

The winner of the previous edition can also help with the organization by proposing logos, slogans, venue, broadcaster, city where the forthcoming EM edition will be hosted.

Presenter/s:

They will host the live shows by proposing different activities such as: interval acts, ranking of songs etc

Visual Designer

Will create the logo design and slogan of the forthcoming EM Edition.